1. SUBJECT:

Daniel Callis Home.

2. LOCATION:

Located on the River in Hunt's Neck, Virginia, about two miles from the main York County highway, in York County, Virginia.

3. DATE:

Unknown.

4. OWNERS:

Unknown.

5. DESCRIPTION:

The old house was washed away by the river and the family moved to this house nearer the main highway. The house is now empty except for a colored family living on the first floor, and these old pieces of furniture are on the second floor.

6. HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE:

On the second floor of this house will be found the following old pieces of furniture:

Old spinning wheel; one pair of cord and two beautiful old Spooler beds; and an old shelf clock.

These things were taken from the old Daniel Callis home on the River in Hunt's Neck, Virginia.
